

Four Corners seeks an experienced Fundraising Manager to join its team. This new role is an exciting opportunity to support Four Corners' ambitious plans for its creative, skills and gallery programmes to 2023.

Four Corners champions film and photography for all. Our centre in East London offers a dynamic environment where people at all levels gain skills and create new work. We know that access to the arts is not equal, and we aim in particular to support people from traditionally under-represented backgrounds. Our Gallery exhibitions celebrate new and archival work which draws on our heritage of socially engaged approaches to photography and film.

Four Corners is a registered charity. We have a team of ten part-time and full-time staff, and work closely with freelancers, volunteers and partners in film and TV, visual arts, heritage, community and higher education to deliver our programmes.

Fundraising Manager

We are seeking an experienced professional who has demonstrable experience of successful fundraising applications to a range of arts funders.

The postholder will work alongside the Artistic Development Director to support Four Corners' Funding Strategy to 2023. Key aims are to build our gallery and participatory programmes, and to develop a new Film School for diverse participants. We also have planning permission to take forward a new capital project within our building.

To apply

Please email us a cover letter (no more than two pages) addressing how you meet the Person Specification criteria for the role, along with your CV and examples of your previous work to: info@fourcornersfilm.co.uk

Deadline for applications is 10am on Monday 25 January 2021. Interviews will be held in the week beginning 1st February 2021.

Four Corners is an equal opportunities employer. We particularly welcome applications from people who are under-represented within visual arts and creative media sectors.
